

Welcome to the second newsletter for Social Growth for Circular Fashion

SOGFASH

This project aims to develop a capacity building program for women in the fashion industry, providing them with the necessary skills for circular fashion processes and traditional techniques that are part of each region's culture and heritage.

Our project partners are bringing their sectoral strengths to develop seven unique toolkits to support women's upskilling and empowerment in circular fashion as well as seven additional toolkits for educators. All toolkits are available for free on our website www.sogfash.com

1. Onboarding and Belonging by Mine Vaganti
-Through this toolkit will participants gain knowledge of co-working practices across different cultures.

2. Personal Growth, Power of Community & Co-Empowerment by HumanNation and IED Madrid
This toolkit introduces the importance of personal development and the power of community.

3. Materiality, Textiles, and Raw Materials by Fashion Revolution Czech Republic
-This toolkit explores current shifts and innovations in materiality, new sustainable textiles, and their sourcing for garment manufacturing.

4. Co-design, Circularity, Materials and Design by The Nest
-The aim of this toolkit is to highlight the roots of regenerative design and the comparison of linear and circular fashion models.

5. Produce Capsule, Pattern Design and Zero Waste Tailoring by The Nest
-This toolkit offers different techniques of transferring designs into practice while highlighting zero-waste and circular steps of production.

6. Impact Models & Collaborations by LLD e.v.
-This toolkit describes effective collaboration practices as well as examines the advantages of cooperative and partnership techniques.

7. Promotion and Marketing by Mine Vaganti
-This toolkit aims to offer knowledge of consumer analysis, product showcasing practices, market research, and related methodologies.